Save the Dates: School of Joy Olive Wood Items from the Holy Land November 16 & 17

Maysoon Khair will be at our churches next weekend representing School of Joy for learning-disabled children and over 100 Christian families who earn a living by selling hand-carved olive wood religious articles. Due to the situation in the Holy Land and the interruption of the tourist trade with Christian families in Bethlehem, they must seek alternative ways to earn a living. After all Masses, there will be a display of these beautiful hand-carved items, such as nativity scenes, crucifixes, rosaries, the Last Supper and many other religious statues. Please view the carvings and help support this project to keep the Children and the Christians living in the Holy Land.

Saint of the Week

Saint Frances Cabrini
Feast Day: Nov. 13
1850-1917

Mother Cabrini was the first U.S. citizen to be canonized; she is the universal patron of immigrants.

She was born in Italy, the youngest of 13 children, and became a school teacher. Denied admission to two religious orders because of frail health, she was given charge of an orphanage in Codogno. In 1880 she founded the Missionary Sisters of the Sacred Heart with seven of her former orphans. The order spread rapidly from northern Italy to Rome, and then in 1889 to New York City, where Mother Cabrini became famous for her work among Italian immigrants. Before dying of malaria in Chicago, she had opened schools, orphanages, and hospitals around the U.S., South America, and Europe.
